

CALVIN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Position Description Pastoral Theology, Care, and Counseling CALVIN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Position: Pastoral Theology, Care, and Counseling
Reports to: Dean of the Faculty
Status: Full-time, Exempt

The Professor of Pastoral Theology, Care, and Counseling is a regularly-appointed, tenure-track faculty member holding the rank of assistant, associate, or full professor. The position involves the full range of faculty, departmental, and committee privileges and responsibilities at Calvin Theological Seminary. The emphasis in this position is on training students and serving the church in the area of Pastoral Theology, Care, and Counseling. The person filling this position will begin his or her responsibilities on July 1, 2026.

The Search Team for this position would like to provide further for prospective applicants with this note:

Thank you for your interest in our faculty opening in pastoral theology, care, and counseling. We encourage you to read over the position description carefully, including the list of personal and academic/professional qualifications. There is flexibility to shape the position around the gifts of the right candidate. We are eager to explore with qualified candidates how the position could be configured to achieve the best possible fit between applicants' gifts and qualifications on the one hand, and the seminary's needs for the position on the other.

To apply, please send a cover letter, unofficial academic transcripts, and curriculum vitae with three recommenders' names and contact information. Review of application materials will commence on December 1. Please address applications or nominations to Dr. Daniel Daley and Dr. Karin Maag, co-chairs of the search team, at facultyopenings@calvinseminary.edu
